

CLIMATE ACTION NETWORK – UGANDA (CAN-U) LTD

BACKGROUND

The climate Action Network Uganda (CAN-U), a civil society network comprising of NGOs, academia, private sector, and religious institutions was established in 2009. Under a Memorandum of Understanding CAN-U is affiliated to CAN- East Africa, CAN – Africa and CAN International. It is registered with the Uganda Registration Services Bureau (URSB) as a company limited by Guarantee. CAN Uganda is governed by the General Assembly which elects the Executive Board of Directors that oversee the functioning of the Secretariat made up of technical staff that run the day-to-day operations of the network.

In terms of membership, CAN Uganda has over 200 CSOs and individuals who subscribe to CAN Uganda's mission and vision. CAN Uganda mission is a leading network advancing climate change action in Uganda' and this is achieved through actively promoting positive climate action through advocacy, networking and programme development'. CAN-U convenes and coordinates civil society in Uganda to rally around the development and implementation of effective climate change policy and practices at local, national and global levels. CAN-U's core work is on climate change policy and advocacy that is based on solid evidence gathered through cutting edge research. We mainly work through collaborative partnerships at local and international levels where we draw on a highly experienced human resource to support our research.
